Registration Of Males Who Have Attained Age Of 18

Every male person who is now located within the boundaries of the State of Mississippi is required to register who has become eighteen years of age. The registration will be held in each local board office in the state of Mississippi between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. on the following dates:

Born July 1st through August 31st, 1924, register Dec. 11th through Dec. 17, 1942.

Sept. 1st through Oct. 31st, 1924, register Dec. 18th through Dec. 24th, 1942.

Nov. 1st through Dec. 31st, 1924, register Dec. 25th through Dec. 31, 1942.

Jan. 1st, 1925 through duration of War—dates eighteenth anniversary is reached.

If the date for registration should fall on Sunday or a legal holiday, the registration will be accomplished on the day following which is not a Sunday or a legal holiday.

If, because of circumstances beyond his control, a person is prevented from registering at the designated time, he shall present himself as soon as possible after the cause for such inability ceases to exist to the nearest local board and register then.

Every male person between the ages of eighteen and sixty-five, other than persons excepted by Section 5 (a) of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 as amended, or by Section 208 of the Coast Guard Auxiliary and Reserve Act of 1941, is required to register or to have registered and have with him at all times his registration card.

Mrs. Lizzie Spears, 96, Died Monday Morning

Mrs. Lizzie Spears, widow of the late Mr. F. M. Spears, died in her home in the Spears community Monday morning, December 7, 1942, at the age of 96 years.

Her body was buried at Mt. Nebo cemetery that afternoon. She was a member of the Baptist Church, and was the widow of an old Confederate soldier who died about 25 years ago.

Mr. Tom Spears and Mrs. Kate Gray, her only surviving survive.

The GOW regrets that it has no more information about the life of this estimable lady, but expresses to the bereaved members of the family its sympathy.

Dr. Moore Moore, Jr. Returns From Mediterranean Sea

Grenada friends of Dr. Moore Moore, read with interest an account in Monday's Commercial Appeal, relating the experience of his eldest son, Lieut. Commander Moore Moore, Junior, who is senior medical adviser on board an American transport. He was on this transport when the Allies launched their recent offensive in Africa. Dr. Moore Moore, Jr.'s ship, the "Edward Rutledge," was torpedoed and sunk beneath him, and all of his clothes and personal effects were lost. He stated that the use of the "blood bank" donated by public minded citizens, was of great benefit and had the endorsement of all service doctors. He stated that it is invaluable and expressed his sincere hope that everyone keeps on contributing blood for transfusion.

Dr. Moore's younger brother, Major William Sibley Moore also is in North Africa. He is with the Army and is assistant military attaché in Medical Corps in Egypt, and was one of the two officers to broadcast on eye witness account of the allied offensive against Marshal Rommel's forces.

Dr. Moore Moore, Sr., a Memphis physician, lived in Grenada when he was a young man. He has three sisters, who reside here now, namely, Mesdames W. M. Mitchell, F. T. Gerard and A. W. George.

Local Red Cross Office Set Up At Camp McCain

Plans for the construction of a Red Cross Office Building are underway at Camp McCain according to an announcement made by William V. Alest, Red Cross Field Director at the Camp. Colonel Ira E. Ryder, Camp Commander, in consultation with Mr. A. F. Roetger, Red Cross Building Supervisor, and with Mr. Alest approved the plans and the site upon which the structure is to be built. Army and Navy regulations give to Red Cross, and only to Red Cross, the authority to operate within military reservations.

The building will be centrally located one half mile east of Camp Headquarters on the north side of Prospect Road. It will have ten offices, and a large reception and general office room. In addition, living quarters for Red Cross personnel will be provided in order to assure maximum 24-hour service to military personnel. There will be a direct hook-up with the Western Union office in Grenada to speed up the sending and receiving of telegraph messages.

Mr. Alest declared that the U-shaped structure will have a frontage of 300 feet and will extend back 60 feet. A large surfaced parking area will be built in front of the office building. Bids from local contractors will be requested upon receiving the "go-ahead signal" from Red Cross Headquarters in Alexandria, Virginia. The structure is expected to be completed and occupied within three months.

Mr. Alest added that among other services the Red Cross staff at Camp McCain gives assistance to soldiers beset by emergencies such as illness or deaths in the family back home. It works closely with the men's local Red Cross chapters. The office is equipped to advise men or their families in financial difficulties; make loans, if necessary; on request of Commanding Officers to furnish confidential reports where an application for dependency discharge has been made; assist members of the man's family to obtain employment; help locate missing relatives; and in general act as a friendly liaison between the men and their families in all matters involving their personal welfare.

Letter From William B. Kenwright

Pt. Benning, Ga., Nov. 27, 1942

Dear Mr. Whitaker:

I am very grateful for the stationery that I was given on my departure from Grenada to take up service with Uncle Sam. Would have sent my thanks sooner, but was waiting until I was stationed so I could tell you a few things about what is to be my new home.

I am stationed at Ft. Benning, Ga. Co. 90 Armed Ren. Bn. Good old Georgia among the tall long-leaf pines where there is plenty of sand. The food is good and the guys, or till you've heard the phrase, "The Yanks are here". Well they are really here. I hardly know what a southerner's voice sounds like now.

I have been here a week now and am afraid to turn around in fear of running into a needle. Ha! They really believe in immunizing a fellow from everything. I think though when my recruiting period is over I will like it just fine, of course though there is really no place like home sweet home.

I will say again, I am very grateful for the stationery and am enjoying writing to my friends on it very much.

Sincerely yours,

Pvt. W. H. Kenwright.

Locals

Thomas Staten returned to his duties at Camp Bell, Fla., on Monday after a furlough spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Staten at Oxberry. He is a welder with Army Engineers. Further news of this family is that H. D. Staten, Jr. has recently been made a Sergeant at Fort Bliss, Texas. Congratulations, Sgt.

Talley Little is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Little at Oxberry. Talley is an MP on duty in California.

News received by Mr. and Mrs. John Emmons at Oxberry is that their son, Archie, has recently been promoted to the rank of Corporal at the army post at Washington, D. C.

Mrs. E. H. Parks attended the marriage of her sister, Miss Melba Anderson to Mr. Tommie D. Ross on November 30 at Chattanooga, Tenn. She returned December 1st and is back at her regular job at Grenada Hospital.

Mrs. John O. Wade returned home Wednesday from Pontotoc, Ill., where she visited her relatives for two weeks.

Mrs. J. W. Haynes has returned after a few days visit in Pascagoula.

Activation Day December 22 At Camp McCain

If you've seen Life Magazine, you've seen how the Army looks in glasses. Now comes a chance to see any Army Division and its full equipment in real life!

For Aviation Day, December 22nd, and for Aviation Day only, the portals of Camp McCain, 6 miles south of Grenada on Highway 51 will be opened wide for citizens from far and near to visit the camp and inspect the Division as it carries on its job.

There'll be big guns, medium sized guns and little guns. There'll be displays of communication outfits, medical outfits and the good old gravel-crushing outfits. Why, there'll be a "chow line."

This is one of the rare opportunities for the public to make a complete tour of the Army Camp. To see it work with your own eyes. Here's a chance to see the type of home in which your son, boy friend or cousin is spending his new army life.

Don't miss it! Don't forget the date! December 22nd, 1942—Don't forget the place—Camp McCain, Miss.

Attend Red Cross Meeting In Clarksdale

Mrs. Lewis, Executive Secretary for Red Cross, and Mr. W. E. Jackson, Grenada County Red Cross Chairman attended a War Fund Drive meeting in Clarksdale last week.

The speaker was Milton C. Tainter, Regional director of Eastern Area of Red Cross. His splendid address was of necessity, a summary of Red Cross achievements in the war zones and at home, and a forecast of what Red Cross will do in the future. The Annual Red Cross Roll Call and War Fund Drive will begin March 1st, 1943. Mr. Hurd Horton is Grenada County Chairman for the drive. The quota for Grenada County has not been announced.

Attended Convention

Tax Assessor Butch McKnight attended the meeting of the Tax Assessor's Association of the State in Jackson last week.

A couple of fattening hogs, John Emmons.

Jake Whitaker, damfino.

A paint job, Albert Clark.

More than 1,500,000 soldiers a month are being moved on trains in this country now. Add the jam of former auto drivers, try to put the usual holiday travel on top of that and it's obvious why the Government is urging folks to stay home Christmas.

Much as our boys in the service want to go home for a Yule-time fire-side chat with their family and the old crowd, the Army has decided to grant leaves to only 10 percent of them because of crowded train and bus prospects. It's up to us Home Fronters to do our part so there'll be room for as many soldiers as possible.

COFFEE AND SUGAR

Coffee drinkers who failed to get the first War Ration Book must apply to the local rationing board by December 15 in order to purchase coffee. That date is also the last day on which stamp No. 9 is good for sugar.

"Point rations" will come next. It will be used for new programs such as meat rationing, and we'll get Book No. 2 full of "points" which we can "spend" to buy any of the items we choose from the newly rationed lists.

Farmers who haven't been allowed enough gas to run their trucks may appeal to the County Agent or to the County War Board.

Countrymen who slaughter meat for their own use aren't subject to OPA meat restrictions, but anyone, including farmers, who slaughter cattle, calves, lambs, sheep or hogs for others must keep records of their meat deliveries.

The Community Newspaper, A Morale Builder

A report comes from Washington that there is some vague talk about making the "war usefulness" of small community newspapers the criterion for the amount of newspaper to be allocated to them in case of a paper shortage. It is said that some of the bureaucrats believe that such community newspapers should print more war news in order to justify their existence.

This opinion evidences a lamentable ignorance of the all important function of the small community newspaper—the publication of news by, of, and for local community. The little papers do not have the facilities or space for printing more than a skeleton coverage of the important national and international events. Nearly everybody at all interested in the over-all war picture supplements their service by reading a metropolitan paper from some nearby city.

The small-town newspaper is and has always been first and foremost the medium by which the people are kept up to date on happenings in their vicinity, the births, marriages, deaths and social events, as well as the trivial things that everybody wants to know about. Whoever said that "morale is made up of a lot of little things" might have been talking about a small-town newspaper—at least he knew what he was talking about, as any small town resident will testify. It will help the war effort more to allow the small-town press to bolster morale in its own way than by forcing the methods of some Washington brain-truster down its throat.

Both Must Live

Some master mind of the nation must draw some very delicate lines between army needs and civilian needs, otherwise we will have an unbalanced economy. If they put too many men in the army, there will be insufficient hands at home to produce food, equipment and ammunition for the armed forces; and, as a consequence, we will have a BIG army, but not a GOOD army.

Some government agency recently predicted that 400,000 small businesses would be bankrupt before the end of 1943. That means that 400,000 former taxpayers will no longer be able to produce taxes to help finance the war.

I am 100 percent with the idea that the soldiers should have the best of everything, but I do not think the soldiers should have EVERYTHING and the civilians nothing but Laramie rations—the "scrap" that fall from the rich man's table.

Right here in Grenada, which is enjoying the biggest boom in its history, and which, in the immediate future, will have more business than its people can possibly take care of, there are already FOUR store buildings—not vacant because there is lack of business, but vacant because of the difficulty, if not the impossibility of securing efficient help and securing replacements to fill the emptying shelves. Until our "boom" period began, there was not a vacant, and desirable, building for rent in Grenada for the past ten years. The people who vacated these buildings, "got out while the getting was good." They had sense enough to get out before they were FORCED out.

I predict that ere long there will be a radical change in the businesses of Grenada. I believe that many of the former legitimate businesses will be forced out, to be replaced by picture galleries, souvenir stores, book and magazine stores and other places catering to the frivolous tastes of many soldiers, who need no staple goods whatever.

Endless Cycle Of Rising Prices

The endless cycle of rising prices and costs, including the costs of operating a country newspaper, is going to force one of two things upon country publishers: first, reduced standards, or, second, increased prices for their subscriptions and advertising.

As long as it is humanly possible, the Grenada County Weekly will maintain its standards—good clear printing, home town news and more or less interesting comments on affairs; and will increase its advertising rates ten cents a column inch beginning with the first issue in January, 1943.

Those who read this newspaper have noted a steady stream of unsolicited new subscribers who have knocked at our door. The reader interest and the coverage are the prime factors in determining advertising rates. Therefore, we are entirely justified in increasing our rates—which, for that matter, we should have done long ago.

When the point comes—as it has come—when we have to choose between reducing standards and increasing rates, we unhesitatingly choose the latter alternative.

Miscellaneous Thoughts

There is a lot of damfoolishness going on—all of which purportedly is in the interest of winning the war—which, it seems to me, is designed principally to give fat jobs to political pets.

It seems like a pack of nonsense to ration sugar, and at the same time, reduce production under the ought-to-be-fucked AAA.

I noticed a form, which a proverbial Philadelphia lawyer would have difficulty in filling out, for use by cafes, however small (and, of course, including the little cafe for colored people down "Beale" Street), boarding houses, hotels, etc. must fill out, telling, among other things, how many customers were served, the exact quality of a long list of commodities on hand December 31, 1942, and a whole lot of other tripe. To keep up with this voluminous business, an owner of a cafe would need as many bookkeepers as he would need waitresses.

The sooner people get it out of their heads that we are soon to achieve final victory, should clear up their thinking apparatus. We have hardly STARTED winning the war. Germany and her allies did not win the war in the three past years, in spite of an uninterrupted series of successes. How in the name of commonsense can we expect to win the war with a few minor successes. The Japs, for example, advanced by the mile, while we are creeping back by the foot.

There seems to be bottlenecks in the assembly line producing soldiers. When the soldier takes the oath of allegiance, he starts on the assembly line; when he is face to face with the enemy in combat, he is the finished product. It looks to me that they are feeding in the front end faster than they pass out the rear end. For example, we had a "home" company, composed of about 100 men, who left Grenada just about two years ago. So far as I personally know NOT ONE of them is out of the United States.

From observation and from inquiries, I have found out that the military police, cooperating with the civil authorities, have reduced the trouble to a minimum here in Grenada. Both the civil authorities and the MPs are achieving fine results, after a poor start.

I have as much right to guess as anyone has. My guess is that Camp McCain will not be filled until about the middle of January; and that the Grenada Air Base will be filled somewhat later.

I have often wondered, and others have wondered, too, why Willie Burt, who is partially paralyzed (or seems to a layman to be so) was ever sent to Shelby when others, apparently upstanding, stay at home. Of course, Willie was turned down.

Many a person patted their feet when they read the leading editorial in last week's GCW. If the cap fits, wear it; if the truth hurts, make the most of it.

Beginning the first issue in January, 1943, as has been stated previously, the Grenada County Weekly will increase its advertising rates. Since it started, it has increased its subscribers—the basis for all advertising rates—greatly. The GCW goes into almost every substantial home in Grenada, either direct or thru neighborly borrowing; and it goes to most of the substantial people of Grenada County, and is read by many of the rest of the people. Costs of operating a newspaper, like the costs of every other enterprise, have risen greatly. The GCW is entirely justified, in the opinion of its owner, in raising rates, instead of lowering standards—the latter we will NOT do, if it is humanly possible to maintain standards.

I want to be neighborly, but I am tired of my back yard being used as a trash dump by my neighbors. The Grenada County Weekly owns ALL of the ground between its own building and the building of Grenada Clinic. I would hate to fence in my land, which I have a perfect right to do. But I am going to fence it, if my "back yard" continues to be used as a dumping ground for infamable litter—which might occasion a fire that might destroy all of this part of town.

The best phrase indicative of the trend of the war was uttered by Britain's Prime Minister who said, "We are not at the beginning of the end, but at the end of the beginning." Mull that over in your minds, you folks who speak of early victory.

Mississippi will need a good governor next term worse than a dead man needs a shroud. Sometime during his term surely, the headaches and heartaches of war will begin.

In spite of the fact that this community has experienced the most perfect year, climatically speaking, than ever before, I heard some folks bellyaching about the rainy day last Saturday. I venture the assertion that not more than ten days have been lost in working at the camp and at the air base, during the year 1942. The farmers enjoyed wonderful planting, growing and harvesting seasons.

As I told you before the soldiers came, you would find the soldiers exceptionally good men, and not a bunch of cut-throats, gamblers and roughnecks. Did you know that a man under indictment for a felony would not be received into the army, however fine a physical specimen he is? Line up 1,000 soldiers and parallel to this line, line up 1,000 civilians, and you will find that the soldiers are better in every respect. Soldiers are SELECTED men. Of course, some of them get drunk and raise hell, but those practices are not confined to the army groups, as you well know. Some soldiers like to mess around with stray women, but neither is that a trait peculiar to the man in service. Some "bad eggs" get into the army, but all of you know personally some "bad eggs" in every church. I have not seen ONE drunken soldier in the business section of Grenada. Your boy and my boys are soldiers. They are typical soldiers. They are just normal, healthy young men.

I would rather see my sons in the army, where they belong, than at home walking the streets or driving about here in Grenada. How about YOU?

Everybody Employed

Everyone will soon be employed; one half, working to produce food, munitions, equipment and a few civilian necessities; and the other half watching the first half, seeing that the former do not use too much sugar, keep their tires properly inflated, reduce rents and make out a couple of forms every day.

RECAPITULATION OF FARM SECURITY ADMINISTRATION'S WORK IN GRENADE COUNTY

The 227 borrowers of the Farm Security Administration in Grenada County have had an unusually successful year due to good crops and the opportunity afforded by outside employment between farming seasons. Every family has made an effort to carry out their "Food for Freedom" pledge and 157 families reached their goals and were presented certificates on Merit Awards signed by the National Administrator, C. B. Baldwin, and by the Regional Administrator, A. D. Stewart, at our county "Food for Freedom" rally held Saturday, November 21st. We hope that every reader of this article listened in on the broadcast from Little Rock at 11:30 that day. If you did not, you missed hearing a word of greeting from Secretary of Agriculture, Mr. Wickard and a very fine address by our National Administrator, C. B. Baldwin, short talks by T. B. Fatherree, A. M. Rogers, Assistant Regional Directors and A. D. Stewart, Regional Director of F. S. A.

At the beginning of this year the FSA loaned borrowers in Grenada County approximately $4208.00 for subsistence which was all due this fall and $3700.00 for capital goods which is due to be paid in annual payments over a period of from three to five years, depending upon the ability and success of the individual borrowers. To date we have collected $63,742.45 this year. Many families have not only paid loans for 1942 but have been able to reduce their past indebtedness considerably and deposit enough money in the bank to pay 1943 operating expenses. Several families have paid all they owed the Farm Security Administration and will not have to borrow any money another year as most of you know, congress reduced the allotment requested by FSA officials for the fiscal year 1942-43. Therefore, the number and amount of loans and administrative personnel has had to be reduced where we once had eight employees in our office, we now have but three, but by careful planning, more group supervision and less individual supervision, we are able to carry on the work.

Our office is located over the Bus Station in the Masonic Building and we would like for the public to know that we are always glad to take time out from our work to answer any questions you may have in regard to the work of the FSA. We are glad for you to come even though you may come to criticize our work because we can always benefit by criticisms and often times the public has been misinformed about our work. When, if we had the opportunity to explain the program of the FSA to you, we would both be benefited.

... General Electric equipment is fighting with America's land army. From the rolling kitchen to the front line, electricity works for victory.

1. In the factory electricity stitches the seams of tank armor, and on the battlefield it controls the operation of these spearheads of modern combat.

2. In induction center and field hospital, the X ray helps safeguard the health of our fighting men, aiding in the diagnosis and treatment of disease.

3. Far from the usual power sources, mobile power plants supply electricity for 800,000,000 candlepower searchlights by which a newspaper can be read 12 miles away.

4. Blitz war requires swift communications! On the soldier's back, in field and sky, radio co-ordinates the striking force of American army planes, guns, and tanks.

General Electric believes that its first duty as a good citizen is to be a good soldier.

Camp McCain News

The most exciting news of the week is that Tommie and Melba were finally married. You all know Thomas Darras, known to his many patrons and friends as "Little Tom," proprietor of the "Little Inn," one of the favorite places for fine food on Highway No. 51. Tom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Darras, of Chattanooga, Tenn.

His bride, the former Miss Melba Ruth Anderson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Seth Anderson, of Mobile, Ala. Melba and Tom met three years ago when they were studying at Ole Miss. They have been planning to get married all summer and fall and were all happy when they finally decided to go ahead with the great event. Melba works out at Camp, and is one of the most popular girls here.

The beautiful wedding took place in the Greek Orthodox Church in Chattanooga on November 30, at six o'clock, with the Rev. Evangelos Contonoleon officiating. We'll have to report the rest of the wedding by hearsay, and from what we hear, it was really a beautiful ceremony.

The church was decorated with many bouquets of huge white chrysanthemums, and the cathedral candles glowed softly in the tiered candelabra. The altar was decorated with palms and ferns. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Asimo Ellis played "Ave Maria," "Liebertraum," and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" on the organ, and sang "Because."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an exquisite ivory duchess wedding gown, with a sweetheart neckline and long fitted sleeves caught at the collar by pointed sleeves with tiny self covered buttons. The dress had a fitted midriff from which fell a bouffant skirt in graceful folds, ending in a wider circular train.

The long veil of white illusion was bordered with wide chantilly lace and fell from a tiara of orange blossoms and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of gardenias caught with satin ribbons and streamers.

The recently married Mrs. E. H. Parks, of Grenada, was her sister's matron of honor, and wore a dress with a pink satin bodice and bouffant skirt of starched net. She carried an armful of pink roses, and wore white gardenias tied with a black ribbon in her hair.

The bridesmaids, Misses Helen Ellis and Asimo Ellis, of Chattanooga, wore identical dresses of black velvet bodices and bouffant pink net skirts; about which were scattered black swallows.

The flower girls were Annatice Sops and Constance Christie, and were dressed similarly to the bridesmaids. They carried baskets tied with satin ribbons and scattered rose petals for the bride to walk on. The ring bearer who was George Bush, carried the rings upon a heart shaped satin pillow decorated with lily of the valley and ribbons.

Mr. Dennis Christie was Mr. Darras' best man, and his groomsmen were his brother, Mr. Sam Darras, and Dr. Gus Viasis.

Mr. and Mrs. Darras, parents of the groom, entertained afterwards at a formal reception at the Knights of Columbus Hall following the ceremony. The hall was decorated with many white blossoms and ferns, carrying out the bridal motif. There was dancing afterwards to George Petras' orchestra, and the bride and groom led the first walk.

There have been several showers given for the popular bride, who is continuing her work at Camp.

After such excitement, ordinary week-ends may sound prosaic, but we still enjoy a good trip.

Mrs. Sarah Reid spent the week-end in Winona with Mr. and Mrs. Deponal, and most of Saturday was spent shopping in Greenwood.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. S. Lewis, of Guntown, Miss., visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. McCool last week-end. Mrs. McCool's father is a Reverend in the Methodist Church.

This is news of a different nature.

Grace S. has been staying home these nights . . . that is, every other night.

Lon Dee Scott went to Memphis this Monday to see Santa Claus for the twins. He said that since she'd glamorized her hair-do, he could promise most anything.

Marie Trusty went to Water Valley this week-end. That is an almost weekly occurrence, but the new part about it is that she wore her new fur coat.

Mickey J. Lee has been in Monroe, La., since Saturday. Her husband has been ill, and she has been taking care of him.

The Navy is really thinning out the ranks of the U. S. Government. Mr. W. D. Brantley left for New Orleans this Wednesday to enter the navy. He was in the Naval Reserve, and was waiting for his call. He and Mrs. Brantley spent the week-end in Pine Valley, Miss., visiting their relatives.

The Navy also claimed Harold V. Summers. He, too was in the Naval Reserve, and reported to New Orleans this Wednesday. He rather expects to be stationed in Norfolk, Va., after his induction.

Miss Betty Johnston, of Carrollton, spent the week-end at home.

That is about all the news this week, but next week there will be a special item of interest to everyone. We managed to get an exclusive interview with the new Project Manager for Jones Construction Co., Mr. John T. Watson, just for the Grenada County Weekly. Private life and everything! (We're still working on the love-life angle, but he just won't talk!)

Also next week will be the full story of Denny Norton's barbecued rib party—to be held tonight.

One last item that should be included. Squatty Hall of Vicksburg District fame just breezed into the office. He's been sold down the river to the Mobile, Ala., District for sixty days to help with the transfer of the construction work to that district. Camp McCain is now under their supervision, you know.

BRIDE HONORED AT PARTIES.

On November 17, 1942 Mrs. E. H. Parks, nee Flora Anderson, was entertained by her sister, Miss Melba Anderson, with a shower in the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. G. Jones on Franklin Street.

Several friends of the bride attended this party where she received many lovely and useful gifts. The guests played several games, wrote their wishes for the bride in a lovely bridal book, which was later given to the honoree by the hostess, after the gifts had been opened by the bride. Delicious sandwiches, cookies, potato chips and cold drinks were served. Several of the invited guests were unable to attend. The guests were, Mrs. E. H. Parks, Mrs. J. G. Jones, Mrs. Earl White, Miss Imogene Hardy, Mrs. Frank Horton, Miss Dorothy McCracken, and Miss Melba Anderson, the hostess.

On November 27th, Mrs. Jack Shipp, nee Iola Lott honored Mrs. E. H. Parks with a delightful miscellaneous shower at her home on Pecan St. The social hour was spent writing in the bride's book, and playing clever games.

The many lovely gifts were presented by the hostess. She received linens and crystal in her bridal pattern. After the gifts were opened the hostess served a delicious salad course and coffee. Guests were Mesdames Lloyd Lott, Ted Coats, Telford Jacks, the honoree, Mrs. Parks, and Misses Beulah Moss, Annie Anderson, Dorothy McCracken, and the hostess.

On Tuesday, December 8 Mrs. Parks entertained in honor of her sister, Mrs. Tommie Dorros, nee Mellon Anderson, at the Nurses Home on Fairground Road. This lovely affair was a linen shower and bridge party. Two tables were arranged for the games and the high score prize, a novelty picture, was won by Miss Dorothy McCracken. Miss Olivia Wilkins received the consolation prize, a very lovely sachet. After the presentation of a basket of lovely linens, the hostess served delectable party refreshments to the following guests, Misses Juanita Smith, Dorothy Parks, Olivia Wilkins, Imogene Harding, Dorothy McCracken, and Mrs. Fred Simmons.

LEANA-FORRE

A wedding of interest occurred at Camp McCain on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, Dec. 8, 1942 in the Regimental Chapel at Camp McCain when Miss Virginia Forbes, of Watertown, Tenn., daughter of Colonel E. A. Forbes, now stationed in Guadalcanal, became the bride of Lieut. Joseph Leana, of Watertown, N. J., and Camp Cain, Miss Chaplin Allison, assisted by Chaplin Cunningham, officiated.

Nuptial music was given by Lieut. Levy, who accompanied Lieut. Fisher as he sang "I Love You Truly". Lieut. Levy played the traditional march.

Mrs. Bill Murray was matron of honor and Lieut. Wise served as best man.

This was the first wedding to be held in the 345th Regimental Chapel. The guests were Colonel and Mrs. Cartwright, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Caldwell, of Grenada, and the officers of 345th regiment in mass attendance.

BARHAM-BRADLEY

The first wedding at Camp McCain was reported by Capt. Price. The wedding occurred on Nov. 24, 1942 which united Miss Sarah Bradley and Lieut. Howard Barham, of the 87th Division in marriage. Further information lacking.

VOLLIE SAYS!

This is the time of year when we begin to feel that maybe life is worth living after all. The air is crisp and the clouds, trees and hills seem to take on a beauty heretofore unnoticed.

GOOD WILL

Yes, and good will is beginning to spread out like a green bay tree and people seem to show a more kindly spirit and be more tolerant one to another.

IT'S CONTAGIOUS

Yes, it's like a bad cold and if you get all filled up with good will and are not very careful, you'll pass it to some one.

LET IT RAMBLE

Yes! Don't tighten up and try to withhold it from your neighbor, but turn it loose on everyone you contact, even the cats and dogs love it.

IT'S OUR BEST ASSET

Yes! It's true we have a few hundred dollars invested in merchandise and fixtures but our big item is good will and we make every effort to get and hold all the good will we possibly can.

I talked to the man in Atlanta about the roto section, and, from what he stated, it is my opinion that it is extremely unlikely that we will get out our special edition on the 24, but, certainly, on the 31st. The two-weeks of illness of Mr. Mayers, the roto editor and the immense amount of government work piled upon the roto producer make for this delay. Everyone knows that the war interferes with their own plans, and this is but another case where the war has interfered with the plans of the GOW. I personally assure the readers and the copers that our edition will be a "honey" when it DOES appear. We already have printed six pages of OUR part—the black and white section and will have eight printed by Saturday night.

Corporal Robert Lee Harris is receiving the GOW as a Christmas present from his mother. Sixty percent of the men in service, when interviewed, stated they preferred the home town paper as a gift.

Little Joe Neely is another one who is getting the GOW as a present from his parents. He is in war work in Birmingham.

This has been hog killing time, and lots of chittlings and backbones and spare ribs have got to pot. Prich Horton can eat a chittling a mile long and a hog maw every hundred yards.

Our supervisors increased the county's appropriation for the Highway Patrol station—a wise move, George voted no.

Abernathy will soon be warming a seat in Washington, and no doubt is reshuffling the cards. I do not imagine he is going contrary to Andrew Jackson's dictum, "To the victor, belong the spoils". I expect there is many a protégé of Ford who is having bad dreams at night, feeling that he will soon have to go to work.

I must have struck a responsive chord last week, for I have NEVER had more favorable comments before.

Aint they sweet.

Earl Hurley has been abed for a week or so. The Ferdinand Club, which, by the way, has helped support him—is figuring on sending him a bunch of flowers.

People will confer a great favor on the GOW if they will refrain from sending people seeking living quarters to us. We have none. We know none. We have heard of none. I do not believe there is any place to stay left in Grenada.

Dink Thomason visited Grenada recently.

Wonder where John McEchin is these days? Have not seen him in a coon's age.

There were fifty times as many pigs as deer killed on the recent deer camps in the Osberry bottom.

No, no, Cousin Ira has not moved to Grenada.

An authoritative source disclosed that the recent of the war in the armed forces preferred a subscription to their home town newspaper to any other present.

We are sure that, by the time you read this, we will have some handsome sets of Christmas cards—ordered about two weeks ago (They are scarce, we have found out). Each set will contain 21 beautifully designed cards. With your name printed on each card, we charge $1.25 a set.

J. L. Townes, Sr. is resting up after rebuilding the jack barn.

Every hotel, except Hotel de Jail was filled Saturday night.

Cousin Rebecca Townes has been under the weather.

Unless it shows some sign of life soon, I will have to write an obituary for the Ferdinand Club.

Mr. Huffman and our Mr. Greenfield are soon to move to their new home on Adams Street.

Old Carroll County got into the feature section of the Commercial Appeal Sunday with a story of Admiral McCain, Chief of Naval Operations in the South Pacific. He, like General H. P. McCain, for whom Camp McCain was named, is a cousin of the Youngs and an uncle of Mrs. Harry Adams.

Montelle Clogston has been promoted to the rank of Sergeant at his station in Hawaii. Sergeant Clogston had been in the army six months when he was promoted about six weeks ago.

Lucy Webb Sharp Feted At Parties

The first of a series of prenuptial affairs for Miss Lucy Webb Sharp, whose marriage to Lieutenant Lynn Williams will be solemnized at a mid-winter ceremony, was a delightful card party and miscellaneous shower given by Miss Mary Elizabeth McNeille and Miss May Caldwell at their apartment home on South Street, early last week.

Guests arrived at eight o'clock and after an hour spent playing bananza the hostess served refreshments. At this time dainty little Mary Hardy Bays, dressed in a white net frock entered the room with the gifts for the honoree. They were arranged in a toy wagon and were presented to Miss Sharp.

MISS ROSE HOSTESS

Continuing the series of parties for Miss Sharp, on Friday evening, November 27, Misses Mae and Elizabeth Rose honored Miss Lucy Webb Sharp with a miscellaneous shower given at their home. On entering, the honoree, dressed in a model of golden-colored crepe, was presented a corsage of white carnations.

The presentation of the gifts was planned in the form of a treasure hunt the packages being hidden throughout the house. The clues for locating the gifts were rhyming couplets attached to red and white bells suspended from the mantle. The bride-to-be was asked to read the directions on a large white bell which led her to the gift of the hostesses, a four-piece crystal console set. The guests located the remaining presents and presented them to Miss Sharp. Miss Helen Rose then read an original poem giving advice to a bride whose husband is in the service.

The bride-to-be was given five clues to another gift which led her to a bride's book concealed in the mail box, a personal gift of Miss Elizabeth Rose. After all gifts were discovered and displayed, the guests were served a salad course with Coca-Cola.

Those enjoying the party with Miss Sharp were Mrs. Thelma Harris, Miss Mae Caldwell, Miss Lola Bell Horton, Mrs. Fred Shaw, Miss Laura Mae Caldwell, Mrs. George Hey Fox, Miss Mary Ella Collins and Miss Eloise Williams.

BRIDGE PARTY FOR MISS SHARP

Mrs. Donald Sharp and Mrs. Mary Mary Ida Parks complimented their cousin, Miss Lucy Webb Sharp at the home of Mrs. Donald Sharp on Sulder Street on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. Three tables were arranged for bridge games and prizes were awarded at ten o'clock. High score prize, a lovely lapel pin was won by Mrs. Juel Batson and the bingo award prize, two sport handkerchiefs, was won by Miss Laura Mae Caldwell. The honoree was presented a lovely seashell gift. The hostess served a delicious salad course with Coca-Cola to the following guests:

Miss Lucy Webb Sharp, Mesdames Chas. Ferrell, Joe B. Williams, Fred Shaw, Juel Batson, Mildred Hill, Charlie Crenshaw, and Misses Edith Penn, Martha Bess Brown, Margaret Finney, Annie Anderson, and Laura May Caldwell.

BUFFET SUPPER FOR MISS SHARP

On Thursday evening Mrs. Hal Rogers, Mrs. Hamilton Graves and Mrs. Lena Elma Cheek were hostess, entertaining at an elaborate supper party, served buffet style at the home of Mrs. Rogers on South Street. Exquisite chrysanthemums graced the living room and dining room for this lovely party, and the bride's motif was most successfully carried out especially in the dining room. Here the dining table, draped with white lace was centered by a bride and groom tablecloth and this lovely scene was placed directly beneath the suspended wedding bell adorned with white satin streamers, holding orange blossoms. The honoree's place was marked by a lovely white corsage and the guests' place cards were pictures of a soldier and bride. A three course turkey dinner was served most graciously and in mid evening two attractive children, Donna Jean Sharp and Howard Cheek brought in a huge tub filled with kitchen utensils for the bride-elect. The hostesses gifts to Miss Sharp were six China plates in her chosen bride China.

Guests to enjoy this lovely affair included Misses Sharp, Laura Mae Caldwell, Isabelle Bailey, Elizabeth Rose, Edith Penn, Ruth Sweetland, Martha Bess Brown, and Mesdames Juel Batson, Bertram Bays, Fred Shaw, Mary Ida Parks, Chas. Ferrell, Walter V. Davis, Joe B. Williams and Frank Horton. Unable to attend, Misses Eloise Wilkins, Margaret Finney, and Annie Anderson, and Mrs. Charlie Crenshaw.

MISS BAILEY HOSTESS

On Thursday evening at seven o'clock Miss Isabelle Bailey will be hostess at a charmingly planned dinner party honoring her close friend, Miss Lucy Webb Sharp, bride-elect of Lt. Lynn Williams.

The charming living room, where the tables were arranged for bridge games was lovely indeed with decorations blending artistically to accent both the event and the Yuletide season.

The hostess, Miss Bailey, and the honoree, Miss Sharp, greeted the guests as they arrived, and dinner was served at seven-thirty. Miss Sharp was attired in a lovely trousseau frock for this occasion.

WILLIAMS-SHARP NUPTIAL VOWS TO BE PLEDGED MONDAY AFTERNOON

Dr. and Mrs. John Sidney Sharp announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Lucy Webb to Lieutenant Lynn Williams, on Monday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, December 14, 1942, the ceremony to be solemnized at the Methodist Church in Grenada.

The wedding party includes Mrs. George Hey Fox as matron of honor, and Private Pete Perry, of Camp Walters, Texas is expected to arrive to serve his friend as best man.

Ushers will be Messrs. Fred Lickfold, Jr., Bob Townes, Donald Sharp and Bobby Sharp. Nuptial music will be given by Mrs. W. A. Lomax at the organ and Mrs. F. S. Hill will sing.

Due to uncertain leave orders for army officers, the publication of the approaching wedding is of necessity made only a few days before the ceremony.

Friends are cordially invited to the wedding.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

On Saturday afternoon, December 5, a bevy of lovely children gathered at the home of Joyce White on South Street to celebrate with her, her eighth birthday.

The affair was a "tacky party", so enjoyable for little girls, and the invitations were unique "Ole grey bonnets, with pink flowers upon 'it."

The children's costumes were adorable and in their newly created personalities, much of the original predominated. They first enjoyed games of bingo, and the lucky one was awarded a prize, several other games were played, and prizes were given, and the planning of stars on the Christmas tree closed the games of the afternoon. Little Virginia Bradley, dressed as a "lady" won the small doll; dressed as a colonial maid for having a "perfect" costume. In the language of the children, Virginia was "too cute."

Mrs. White served dainty refreshments of jello in green and red, with the beautiful birthday cake which had eight lighted candles. The birthday cake was very artistic, being an adorable snow man, holding in his right hand an American flag and perched on his head was placed a soldier's jaunty cap. Old fashioned gum "drops" bonnets were given as favors and Joyce received lovely birthday gifts for which she thanked each very sweetly.

The invited guests included the following friends, however because of the inclement weather, a few were unable to attend.

Lucy Robinson, Virginia Bradley, Anne Kent, Barbara Lamar, Shirley Waggoner, Mary Alice Dyer, Clara Nichols, Martha Glenn Wiley, Dorothy Liles, Olivette Craig, Marjorie Ann King, Jacqueline Sanderson, Virginia Bernhard, Betty Bernhard, Sally Ford Ashworth.

Mrs. W. P. Hamsley underwent an operation last week at the Methodist Hospital in Memphis. Her condition is reported improving.

DORRHOE-THORN

On November 27, Rev. E. R. Henderson united in the bonds of matrimony Miss Emmeline Thorn, of Water Valley, and Mr. Curtis Durroh, who is connected with Collins' Barber Shop.

Miss Isabelle Bailey returned home Thursday from Chicago where she visited her brother, dental student, Cliff Bailey, Jr., at the University of Chicago.

Mrs. Fred Shaw spent the past week end in New Orleans with her husband.

Mrs. Mildred Hill visited her family in Philadelphia, Miss., the past week-end.

Miss Laura May Caldwell visited her parents, Judge and Mrs. Caldwell in Charleston the past week-end.

Miss May Caldwell and Miss Mary Elizabeth McNeille are visiting in Indianapolis this week.

Pvt. Andrew D. Whitaker, of Smyrna Field, Smyrna, Tenn., visited his wife and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Whitaker this past week-end. Andrew thinks that this visit was his "Christmas holiday" visit. He left on No. 4 Sunday.

Friends of Mr. W. M. Mitchell will be glad to know that he is improving nicely following an illness of several weeks. Mr. Mitchell is at his home recuperating.

LEAVES FOR DUTY

Mr. Juel Batson has entered the service of Uncle Sam at Randolph Field, San Antonio, Texas. Mr. Batson left for his duties a week ago.

Mrs. Joseph S. Correll, of Raleigh, N. C. was the delightful guest of her young friend, Cpl. Frederick Balass, young Hungarian violinist of Camp McCain, recently. Cpl. Balass has attracted much interest and is delightfully appreciated by all who know him and have heard him play. Mrs. Correll became interested in Cpl. Balass while he was stationed at Fort Bragg in North Carolina at the time she supervised musicals given for soldiers entertainment at Fort Bragg. Mrs. Correll, a woman of certainly most charming culture and personality, is president of Federated Music Clubs of North Carolina. While in Grenada she stopped at the Barwin.

Mrs. Annie Jones is spending the winter months at Biloxi. She left last week, and wrote back that roses are blooming and that spring weather prevails at Biloxi.

Mr. Thomas, USO Executive Secretary welcomed his family, Mrs. Thomas and their four children on Friday of last week. They came, via auto, from Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McCool and son were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley DeLoach at Kosciusko.

Lt. and Mrs. Russell Hooker are visiting relatives here. They will return to Fort Knox, Ky., later this week.

PFC Sam Marascalco of the Air Force at Columbus, Ohio, is spending his furlough with his parents and other relatives in Grenada.

For the convenience of those who must travel during the Holiday Season, and to enable them to make definite plans

ALL PASSENGERS WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE RESERVATIONS FOR COACH ACCOMMODATIONS AS WELL AS SPACE IN SLEEPING CARS ON ALL ILLINOIS CENTRAL TRAINS

December 15 to January 10

Train travel over the holidays is always very heavy, and this year the demand will be far greater than ever because of military movements, furlough travel, essential war business, and rationing of gasoline and tires.

In order that those who must travel may do so as comfortably as possible, all accommodations on all Illinois Central trains will be reserved. This will enable passengers to plan their trips with confidence, and complete them as planned.

COACH ACCOMMODATIONS—How to Obtain Them

Passengers desiring coach accommodations on any Illinois Central train between December 15 and January 10 are asked to make advance application, in person if possible, to the nearest Illinois Central agent for coach space allotment, giving date and train on which trip is to be made, going and returning. Applications will be handled as quickly as possible in the order received and space allotted in a designated coach. If no space is available on date and train preferred, choice of alternate dates and trains may be available. Tickets will not be sold if no space is available. Space allotment card will accompany each rail ticket when purchased. Only passengers holding space allotment cards and rail tickets may board trains. Reservations made at points from which space is to be used will be held until 5:00 pm of the next business day. Reservations made elsewhere will be held until 5:00 pm of the third business day. Tickets should be purchased when reservations are made. If tickets are not purchased within these limitations space will be automatically cancelled.

SLEEPING CAR ACCOMMODATIONS

Sleeping car and rail tickets should be purchased when reservations are made. The customary conditions governing sleeping car reservations will prevail as follows:

1. Reservations made on day of departure will be held until 3 hours prior to train time.

2. Reservations made 15 days in advance or less at points from which space is to be used will be held until 5:00 pm of the next business day. Those made elsewhere will be held until 5:00 pm of the third business day.

3. Reservations may be made more than 15 days in advance by arrangement with ticket agent.

Space allotments and reservations are subject to cancellation without notice if it becomes necessary to give preference to military movements.

Our telephone service is carrying a heavy load, and we would therefore appreciate your calling at our nearest office in person. It is advisable to make your plans as far in advance as possible—it may require some time to allot your space. We expect to be able to take care of all necessary travel, but we earnestly urge all who can postpone their trips until after January 10 to do so.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Stiffening Axis Resistance Holds Up Allied Drive on African Strongholds; U. S. Navy Scores Again on Jap Fleet; House Moves to Increase Farm Parity

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lieut. Gen. Lesley J. McNair, commanding general of the U. S. army ground forces (right), congratulates army officers to whom he has awarded the Order of the Purple Heart. The decorated heroes who were wounded in action against the Axis forces in Africa are, seated left to right, Lieut. Darrel G. Lee, Ingleswood, Calif.; Lieut. Leslie Ward Dealey, Athens, Tenn.; and Capt. Ford Alcorn, Beaverville, Mo. Standing in background is Brig. Gen. Floyd L. Parks, chief of staff for General McNair.

FARM PRICES: Parity Rate Boost?

Farm parity prices would have to be revised upward 13 1/4 per cent if a bill passed by the house of representatives is eventually enacted into law.

The measure passed by unanimous vote would require the department of agriculture to raise parity prices for all agricultural commodities, to include all costs of labor, including hired hands and farmers themselves.

That such action would be strongly opposed by President Roosevelt in his inflation efforts was indicated by the fact that a similar provision included in the price act amendment last fall was bitterly fought by the administration and finally compromised.

Explaining the provisions of their measure, house agricultural committee members explained that under the existing setup no allowance is now given farmers for their labor costs in fixing price ceilings, in spite of the fact that "farm wage rates were going up daily." The farmers ask no more than "equality treatment," the committee declared. "They know that every manufacturer is permitted to include his labor cost in figuring his costs of production."

TUNISIA:

Naval Phases Disclosed

Naval guns of the British fleet added their power to the arms of the Allied forces pressing hard on the Axis defenders of Tunisia, by sinking four supply transport ships and two destroyers in a convoy carrying supplies and reinforcements to North Africa.

Announcement of the victory came soon after the admiralty and U. S. navy department disclosed that the Allies had lost 16 vessels during the original A.E.F. landings in North Africa. The toll was described as considerably smaller than originally expected.

Included in the United Nations' losses were the British small aircraft carrier Avenger, three destroyers and five lighter vessels as well as five U. S. naval transports.

As the stage was set for the final showdown for control of Tunisia, the German-controlled Paris radio admitted that a British-American column had penetrated to the east coast of Tunisia and had advanced between Sfax and Gabes.

With opposing forces concentrating in a narrow coastal area between the cities of Tunis and Bizerte Allied advances had slowed down in the face of strengthening German resistance.

Despite continuing vigilance of Allied sea and air patrols, the Axis had admittedly gained reinforcements. In certain areas they achieved local air superiority. Moreover the fierceness of their attempted counterattacks and the presence of considerable Axis mechanized equipment in the Tobourda-Djedeida area indicated the enemy's unexpected strength.

NO. AFRICA REGIME:

People Will Decide

As evidence mounted that Admiral Jean Darlan intended to make his leadership in North Africa permanent, official Washington reiterated its declaration that the French people ultimately will be the ones to decide who is to rule.

Spokesman for the administration was Secretary of State Cordell Hull, who said ironically that the United States was too busy winning the war in North Africa to worry about reports that Darlan had taken over.

PACIFIC:

U. S. Strength Grows

Offensive actions undertaken by Allied forces in the Pacific war theater had continued to gain momentum.

U. S. naval forces decisively beat off another Jap attempt to regain control of the southern Solomons by sinking nine more enemy ships, including six warships in an engagement north of Guadalcanal. Jap losses included two large destroyers or cruisers, four destroyers, two transports and one cargo ship. The Americans lost a cruiser and reported other ships damaged. Meanwhile American land forces continued their mopping up operations around Henderson airfield.

Indicative of the growing strength of the Allies was the report from Auckland, New Zealand, of the safe arrival of an American expeditionary force so large that it took hours for the de-laden transports to discharge their cargoes of men and supplies. Lean gray warships of the U. S. navy had safely convoyed the transports through Jap-threatened waters.

In New Guinea the tempo of the allied offense against the narrow Jap-held beach-heads bordering Buna was stepped up. Allied airmen beat off a Jap naval force attempting to land reinforcements and supplies for the hard-pressed Nipponese and shot down 23 Jap planes. American and Australian troops meanwhile had infiltrated to the outskirts of Buna and had driven down the beach from Gona toward Sanananda, five miles above Buna.

INVESTMENT INCOME: $25,000 Ceiling?

Even as salary freezing regulations were made public through out the nation, congress was invited by President Roosevelt to put a $25,000 ceiling on net investment income to match the $25,000 ceiling imposed on net salaries by James F. Byrnes, director of economic stabilization.

Under the existing system, individuals are restricted to gross income from salaries of $27,500 a year, or net income after federal income taxes of $25,000. Income from other sources is not so restricted. Pointing out that there has been widespread criticism against inequalities in the present system, Mr. Roosevelt proposed that identical limitations be put on income from investments.

Such a procedure would mean that an individual's total income from salary, from investments or from both could not exceed $25,000 net or $27,500 gross in any one year.

LABOR PEACE:

Decreed by CIO-AFL

For the first time since the CIO split from the American Federation of Labor in 1935, the two organizations entered into an agreement that opened the way for permanent peace and possible full reunions of the two organizations.

Meeting in Washington special committees of the two labor unions agreed to establish a joint commission to resolve all differences between them. To this agreement, they added a proviso that all unsettled issues should be referred to arbitration.

President Roosevelt had long urged the two groups to submerge their differences for the national welfare. President William Green of the AFL and Phillip Murray of the CIO had publicly stated their desire for peace.

New House Seats Promise Merry Christmas for GOP

Under Guidance of Republican Leader Joe Martin, Democrats Will Face Increasing House Opposition.

By BAUKHAGE

News Analyst and Commentator.

WNU Service, 1343 H Street, N.W., Washington, D. C.

The GOP elephant is looking forward to his merriest Christmas in a long time. His trunk will be filled with lots of pretty presents this year—those nice, new, comfortable seats in the house of representatives and the senate.

As the last session of the 77th congress moves to a close there is a contented smile on more than one Republican visage. Not the least genial is former Republican national chairman and continuing leader of the house, Joe Martin of Massachusetts—the "a" in "yard" at Harvard. (That doesn't mean, however, that Joe talks Harvardese—he's a small town boy and makes the most of it.) Beginning January 4, 1943, when the new congress meets, Joe will be out in front ready and able to snap a long raw-hide over his political herd. He doesn't use that method, but he knows what everybody else has known since November 3—that his political power has risen like the mercury in August.

Silently Behind the Scenes

Like most of the effective workers in congress, inter or intra-party, Joe does his stuff quietly behind the scenes. And the impression I got when I talked with him recently in the gloomy, high ceilinged office of the minority leader in the Capitol was that he is more comfortable now that he has slipped out of the chairmanship robes. He can get his coat off, roll up his sleeves and start on his big under-cover campaign.

The slogan for the new venture is "13 to 11 or fight." That means, as most people in Washington know already, 12 Republicans for every 12 Democrats on the congressional committees. (Most committees have 25 members.) That will mean a bare majority of one for the Democrats and more than a corresponding increase in Republican influence in the drafting of legislation.

Reduce Expenditures

There are certain Democrats in both houses, such as Sen. Harry Byrd of Virginia, upon whom house leader Martin can count to join in the chorus of one of the theme songs which is going to be heard with vehemence from the Republican side of the house—reduction of expenditures for non-war projects.

Taxes, the Republicans say, are going to make the middle class more class conscious than they have been for a long time. The white collar, salary man, realizes that he is carrying a financial load which is not being shared by the great army of workers whose incomes have skyrocketed. Many of the middle class are on fixed salaries that didn't go up. It is this class which has bought the most bonds. The Republicans are going to take advantage of this situation and do their utmost to become the champions of the middle class.

One Republican congressman said to me recently:

"We can't outbid the U. S. treasury for the support of the people who are getting various kinds of subsidies or benefits from the administration. We have got to appeal to the salary man, the man with a small business, the fireman, the bus-driver, the people who are paying for homes and buying insurance. That's why it will be a bad mistake if we get ourselves tied up with any of the wealthy eastern politicians. They can give us some money, but that's all. We won't be in the last elections with very little financial help."

As this is being written, the choice of a Republican national chairman has not been made, but if it goes to an easterner whose backers are associated in the public mind with great wealth, it will be a bitter disappointment to a group of practical minded Republicans in congress who are looking forward seriously and hopefully to the presidential campaign in 1944.

However, at this point it might be said that the national committee chairman in neither party has the power or the importance that he once held. There was a time when he could get on the long distance phone and tell a state chairman just whom he wanted nominated for the presidency and if he was a fairly powerful popular figure, "the boys" could and would frequently deliver. Those days are over and press and radio gets much of the credit. Candidates have become real personalities to the voters and the voters don't let the bosses make up their minds for them any more.

Increase of Federal Agents

The Republicans realize this. They also realize that there are other powerful influences which exist now which did not exist the last time they won a presidential election—one is the increased influence of the party in power which has grown with the increased number of federal agents who are in contact with the people. The Republicans, therefore, will do all in their power in the next session of congress to cut down the organizations such as the Triple A and the OPA.

Another federal agency which undoubtedly will be greatly increased if the man-power problem is to be solved, is the United States Employment Service. However, if the employment service has to stand out in front in the enforcement of a compulsory labor law, it may become a political boomerang to whomever the public considers is responsible for it and the Republicans hope to manipulate that situation to their benefit.

Leading the Republican party next year will require political skill because the party of the opposition in wartime is in a difficult position. It must get its share of the credit for winning the war, but it must avoid the blame for the mistakes which are bound to be made and side-step the brickbats which any measure attracts which hits any particular group of voters.

The Republicans have plenty of problems ahead, but if House Leader Martin is typical, they have plenty of confidence and more energy and enthusiasm than they have been able to display for a decade.

Here are excerpts from three days of Secretary of Agriculture Wickard's diary (if he kept a diary, which he doesn't, but the words are the secretary's):

Monday: Went to Peoria, Ill., and addressed a meeting of the National Catholic Rural Life conference. This organization was founded over 20 years ago and has as its objective the betterment of rural living.

At noon attended a luncheon meeting given by the Chamber of Commerce. Many farmers were present. In the evening I addressed a meeting of the American Meat Institute in Chicago. The institute had a number of farm leaders as their guests. At all of those places the question I heard most often was: "How are we going to get enough farm labor to keep up the production which you say must be maintained?"

After the meeting Monday evening I went down to my farm in Indiana. The fall pigs had to be vaccinated and given shelter. There were the usual amount of repairs and odd jobs to be done and I began to see the need for more help. The labor shortage which I had heard about during the last few days was painfully evident on my own farm.

Tuesday: Sold the last of our spring pigs. I obtained use of a couple of trucks in addition to my own and we had them all in the stock yards by noon. My daughter, Anna, came up to the farm from Purdue university after morning classes and we drove the last truckload of pigs to market ourselves.

While at the bank, the editor of the local paper came in and greeted me and remarked it was too bad about Joe Todd. I asked him what had happened. He told me Joe's relatives had just received word that he had been killed in action in the Pacific. Joe and Ann had gone to the same country school. They had been in the same Sunday school class in our country church. He had enlisted early in the air corps and had advanced to the rank of a first lieutenant.

Wednesday: Back in Washington. . . I wish that it were possible for me to see and talk to farm people more often because of the inspiration I receive from them.

THE VALUE OF THE CHURCH TO THE SOCIAL ORDER

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 5:13-16; Mark 13:17; 1 Peter 2:13-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—Ye are the salt of the earth. . . Ye are the light of the world.—Matthew 5:13, 14.

Social and political leaders have in the church the strongest influence for good in all the world. One marvels that those who profess to seek the best for humanity, who try every kind of social experiment, who labor with every expedient of man, fail to see and use in full measure the power of Christianity. Perhaps the explanation is that some of these leaders are themselves unsaved men, who do not understand spiritual things, and are not willing to give God the glory. Perhaps in the case of others it is because of ignorance or lack of contact with the church.

Whatever the reason, the situation should be remedied. America could solve her problems, both social and political, by a nation-wide revival of true Christianity, with the accompanying salvation of thousands of unconverted. If we cannot have that, let us not fail to have a revival in our own hearts, our own churches, our neighborhoods or communities.

We find in our lesson that the church is:

1. A Powerful Influence for Moral Good (Matt. 5:13-16).

Salt in the midst of corruption, light in a world of unbelievable darkness—what striking and meaningful figures with which to describe the Christian.

Believers are the "salt of the earth" because they draw their savor from God Himself. The Christian church, by God's own statement, is His own powerful antiseptic which preserves the social order from falling into the moral decay which sometimes seems imminent. It should, therefore, be honored and encouraged by that society which it serves.

Christians are the "light of the world," and it is the essential nature of light to shine. The darker its surroundings the more marked its brightness, and the more needed its illumination. The good works of Christians reflect the goodness of God, and as they glorify His worthy name. Brother, is your light burning brightly in this wicked world?

2. A Stabilizing Element in Society (Mark 12:13-17).

The world is in social ferment, and our own country has its share of "isms" and social theories calling men to follow, asking their loyalty, making them Utopian promises without foundation.

Alert and intelligent Americans are concerned about these clamorous voices, many of which are quite properly suspected of having purposes far from beneficial to our American way of life, or to democracy itself. Yet they dare not oppose them lest there be the cry of denial of freedom of speech, etc.

What can we do to meet them? Here is the answer: Preach Christ. Bring men to a saving knowledge of Him and to a godly way of living. For the Christian is directed by Christ Himself to "render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's"—and they do it too, because they have first rendered "to God the things that are God's."

3. A Loyal Example of Good Citizenship (1 Pet. 2:13-17).

The highest measure of loyalty to country is the Christian standard before stated. In Romans 13:1-10 we learn that all authority comes from God and that the power of rulers is to be recognized as His gift. That means that true rulers will submit to Him in every detail of their government, seeking to know and to do His will.

However, the Christian gives loyal obedience to the "powers that be" even though they may not recognize the source of their power. This is subject only to the limitation that they may not demand that we do those things that dishonor God's name. Since their only real power to rule comes from Him, they have no authority to tell anyone to do that which is against His holy will. When that happens, the Higher Authority takes over and our loyalty must be to Him, the King of kings. The Christian then will be the best citizen, eager to do what king or country may ask, in order thus to bear a good testimony and to close the mouth of foolish critics of the church.

The history of our country and of other lands reveals the names of many illustrious Christian patriots, and the roll of honor of those who loved and served their country well in the humble and difficult places, would bear its hundreds of thousands of names which are found also on the roll of the church.

Christians, let us be earnest and intelligent followers of Christ, whose lives count for moral uprightness. "For God and Country" is the excellent motto of the American Legion, but it should be more than that; it should be the purpose of every Christian citizen.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

On Tuesday afternoon the National Honor Society held its second meeting of the year. The program consisted of a short history of the National Honor Society given by Billy Saunders, and also a history of the first society in Grenada, presented by Bessie Moore. This program, prepared by Mary Elizabeth Cowan and Jay Gore, program committee, was greatly enjoyed by the members of the Society.

The last part of the meeting was given over to a business session in which a discussion was held to decide what the National Honor Society should do for the welfare of the school this year. The decision was held over to the next meeting, when further discussion will be held.

CHAPEL PROGRAM

Mr. Rundle led the devotional Wednesday. He talked on the need of a four sided life—a good physical, mental, social, and religious life. He based his talk on the thirteenth chapter of Judges and commented on Sampson as a man who developed great physical strength but lacked proper social, mental and spiritual powers.

It was announced that the Senior Class would be in charge of the recreational program Friday night.

Mr. Cash also announced that the band would present a concert on December 15. The admission price will be the purchase of a war stamp.

GRENADE BAND TO PRESENT CONCERT ON DECEMBER 15

On Tuesday, December 15 at 7:30 the Grenada School Band, under the instruction of its new director, Allen Cash, will play a concert for the first time this year. This concert is not only planned for the enjoyment of the people of Grenada and soldiers of Camp McCain, but it is also to promote the sale of war stamps. The admission to the concert will be the purchase of a war stamp, a 25c stamp for adults and a 10c stamp for students.

The numbers on the program are planned to please any type of listeners. There will be two solos, military marches, and novelty numbers, along with interesting typical band numbers.

SENIORS SPONSOR PARTY

The senior class served as sponsors for the second high school party, which was given in the gym Friday night. In spite of the unfavorable weather more than a hundred pupils were there and enjoyed games and dancing. To Mr. W. H. Saunders the school is indebted and grateful for the coins that kept the nickelodeon going. Thanks to Mr. Saunders!

MUSIC DEPARTMENT TO PRESENT CANTATA

At 8 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, December 22 the music department will present a Christmas cantata. About seventy-five pupils will sing at this program, which is directed by Miss Donaldson.

There is no admission charge to the program to which the public is cordially invited.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!
 Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out. Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance. The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Made on Doan's Island at all drug stores.
